SYCUAN RESORT ANNOUNCES ROOM RENOVATION PROJECT

San Diego's Favorite Golf Resort Gets Even Better

October 19, 2009 (El Cajon, California) – Today, Sycuan Resort, an award-winning golf resort just 24 miles inland from downtown San Diego, announces its plan for a 2.7 million dollar renovation project. The project launches on October 9, 2009 with an anticipated completion date of December 31, 2009. Sycuan Resort has contracted HFS Concepts 4, a leading design, architecture, project management and strategic sourcing and procurement firm, to spearhead the interior design efforts for this project.

The purpose of the renovation is to improve the resort's overall aesthetic quality and amenities offered to guests. Each of the 100 rooms will be upgraded to include new:

- Case Goods
- Plush Carpeting
- High-end Drapery and Bedding
- Flat Panel TVs
- Bathrooms and Granite Vanities
- Bedroom Furniture and beautiful Mosaic-tiled Headboard

Jeff Clough, Sycuan Resort's new General Manager says, "Guests can look forward to staying in newly renovated rooms transformed to compliment the beautiful and expansive grounds of Sycuan Resort. Our goal with this new design is to provide a crisp and clean, yet residential feel that will appeal to both the loyal, long-time Sycuan Resort guest as well as the new guest seeking a peaceful and modern golf resort experience.”

Each room on the Sycuan Resort property has a golf course view, and is a convenient five-minute complimentary shuttle ride to the Sycuan Casino. Here guests can enjoy gaming action, fine dining and live entertainment.

ABOUT THE SYCUAN BAND OF THE KUMEYAAY NATION

Members of the Sycuan Band of the Kumeyaay Nation have resided in and around the San Diego area for nearly 12,000 years. The Sycuan Tribal Government operates one of the region's premier Indian gaming and resort facilities, the Sycuan Resort and Casino. The Sycuan Tribe demonstrates its strong commitment to the San Diego region through its support of hundreds of civic and charitable organizations. The Tribe, through the Sycuan Tribal Development Corporation (STDC), also seeks to reinvest in the San Diego community with a progressive business development effort. To date, STDC has purchased Sycuan Resort (formerly Singing Hills Country Club) and the historic U.S. Grant Hotel and Conference Center in National City. The Tribe also owns Sycuan Funds, a publicly traded and professionally managed mutual fund. Combined, these enterprises now employ nearly 4,000 San Diegans.
